To the People of St. Michael Church,
Fort Loramie

My dear people:

I am writing to extend my congratulations to you on the Centennial of your present parish church building.

On occasions such as this we have the opportunity to reflect upon the tremendous gifts the Lord has given us as His people. Gathering each week in this structure, we are able to identify ourselves as the People of God and to share with one another the marvelous works He has done for us. It is a proud history that is represented in St. Michael Church, Fort Loramie.

I am happy that I can participate in this wonderful celebration. I extend to all of you my prayers and my blessing.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Joseph L. Bernardin

REFLECTIONS ON THE PAST

Ohio, Fort Loramie, Saint Michael's: a state, a village, a neighborhood, a parish. Each defines more than a space in time or a spot on the map, for each has meant many things to many people- a place of refuge, an opportunity to grow, a way of life. Each has meant things often quite evident and at the same time things deep and abiding. It would, therefore, be impossible to chronicle all that has preceeded the building of Saint Michael's for the early history of the Loramies is often vague and incomplete. We do know, however, that Berlin appears to have been constituted a parish in 1838, for an old book contains the following minute, "This congregation took its beginning in the year of salvation one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight on the fourth of June." At that date forty families registered as parishoners and shortly thereafter Father Louis Navarron celebrated the first Mass in the newly formed parish. The parish was made up almost entirely of German families many of whom had been in Berlin for some years. But the chief growth of the community took place during the construction of the Miami-Erie Canal when many families came here from Cincinnati and other southern Ohio cities and villages. Shortly thereafter a log church was erected, and occasionally a priest came from Minster and read Mass, baptized children, solemnized marriages and interred the dead.

Thus matters stood until 1849, when the parish embraced over one hundred families. During that year a brick church, sixty by thirty feet, was built (the present chapel) and hung with a seven hundred pound bell. It has been alleged that this chapel is the oldest extant place of Catholic worship in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

But the year, 1849-50, was a trying one for the community; for this was the year of the cholera in its most dreaded type. Twenty-eight persons fell its victims in two months. The plague, however, eventually ran its course, and the people of Berlin resumed their everyday activities. A short time later the new church was dedicated and the services of the Reverend Augustus Berger were secured. Under his direction a priest's house was built and the parish prospered. Rev. Berger remained until 1857 when he was replaced by Rev. M. Anton Meyer. Rev. Meyer added an additional twenty feet to the church and later constructed a school house which we now know as Old Saint Michael's Hall. In 1873 Father Meyer, because of failing health, retired and for a short time St. Michael's was without a priest and pastor. But on January 20, 1874, Rev. William Bigot arrived from Paris to take over the parish.

While in Cincinnati getting directions to Berlin, Rev. Bigot was issued this challenge by the Most Reverend Archbishop John J. Purcell, "In Berlin you will find enough work to do; a large parish, and there you must build a church." Unknowingly in 1876 the parishoners took the first step toward making a new church a reality; they had purchased bells weighing 700, 1200 and 1600 pounds, but finding them inadequate, Father Bigot purchased a 3800 pound bell that proved to be too large for the old church tower.

Speculation then began regarding the possibility of a new church. By 1879, the idea met with great favor, and it was decided to build a church the cost of which was not to exceed $30,000 not including the donated labor of the parishoners. A collection taken up that year raised $16,000 and with the additions of $4,000 already held by the Church a realistic starting sum was available. Messrs. Cudell & Richardson, architects of Cleveland, were secured to furnish plans. In August of 1879, the building site was prepared and by October the foundation had been completed. On October 11, the corner stone was laid by Archbishop Purcell. Work continued for the next two years with little interruption except for some extremely cold days when outside work was impossible.

The early months of 1881 saw an additional $10,000 raised for the church construction plus many additional sums for the beautification of the interior: the altars, the windows and the many statues. By October of that year work on the 150 x 65 foot structure had been completed and paid for. It is estimated that the total cost including cash and donated labor exceeded $40,000. At that time the parish consisted of about two hundred families. Eighty-five lived within the village, sixty east of the village and fifty-five to the west.

Although Archbishop Purcell had promised to return for the consecration of Saint Michael's at the laying of the corner stone, a chronic illness prevented his traveling such a long distance. In his place he sent Auxiliary Bishop W. H. Elder. Bishop Elder arrived in Berlin in a horse drawn carriage escorted by some forty parishoners on horseback. As they moved through the village, the bells in the two hundred foot tower joyously proclaimed the Bishop's arrival to the estimated 4000 who had lined the streets. On Sunday October 2, 1881, just seven years after Archbishop Purcell's challenge to Rev. Bigot and the people of Berlin, St. Michael's become a reality - a monument to their sacrifice, ingenuity and religious fervor.

ADDENDUM

According to the Rev. Raymond Kammerer, Pastor of the Church of Saint Teresa of the Infant Jesus, Covington, Ohio, St. Michael was the scene of the first Mass to be said in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, making Fort Loramie the cradle of our Catholic faith. Ancient journals of French military expeditions found in Quebec, indicate one of these explored the Ohio and Miami Valleys in 1749 made camp along Fort Loramie Creek on what is now the site of the Ferd Fleckenstein farm. There between September 13 and 21, 1749, Father Jospeh Peter Donnecamps offered the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass as part of his duties as Chaplain of the expedition.

THE PARISH COUNCIL

The Parish Council, set up in accord with the Decree of Vatican II has helped the laity of St. Michael's learn first hand the problems of the parish. St. Michael's Parish Council serves to create, to coordinate, to inspire and to demonstrate leadership and enthusiasm for the spiritual matters of the parish. In addition, the Council examines, comments and votes on all expenditures, plans and specifications regarding changes or additions to the parish plant, and makes recommendations relating to the financial administration of the parish.

The Council consists of six members elected at large by the parishoners for two year terms. In addition representatives from the various parish organizations also sit on the Council. The Council meets on the fourth Monday of the month at the rectory. Meetings are open to members of the parish.

THE FINANCE COMMISSION

The Finance Commission serves as a financial advisory board to the Pastor. It has several functions: it submits a parish budget, reviews payments of approved bills in excess of one thousand dollars, negotiates contracts, reviews semi-annual reports to the Chancery and reports its activities to the parish council quarterly. The commission is composed of three members appointed for three year terms.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMISSSION

This commission shall consist of members who have had experience in the areas of maintainance and construction. Its function is to assist the Pastor and Council in planning the maintainance of parish properties, in studying the necessity and/or advisibility of acquiring real estate or in undertaking a building project. In the last instance the Commission will assist with planning a new building or a renovation in close cooperation with the Council and the Commission on Finances. The Commission is presently composed of six members.

WORSHIP COMMISSION

The Worship Commisssion is a task force serving to improve the quality of liturgical celebration in the parish. It shares the Pastor's responsibility to do whatever is needed to foster the growth of a living and authentic liturgical tradition in the parish. Its activities are concerned with: preparing liturgical celebrations, and providing programs of education through lectures, work shops, and home study groups.

THE YOUTH MINISTRY

The needs of school children, especially teenagers, must also be met outside the classroom. St. Michael's has met this need with its Youth Ministry. The purpose of this organization is to work with youth in a four-fold activities program: spiritual, social, cultural and physical. Additional emphasis on the social and cultural aspects of the program has been added recently with the renovation of old St. Michael's Hall. It is interesting to note that the labor involved in the remodeling was entirely donated by interested parishoners.

THE C.C.D. PROGRAM

Because St. Michael's is unable to provide a parochial school, a C.C.D. Program has been initiated. This is a far-reaching program in which the laity, with the guidance of the clergy, play the leading roles. Trained parents teach Christian Doctrine to our elementary children often during released school time and to our high school boys and girls at evening classes. The parishoners of St. Michael's are truly involved in learning, living and teaching the Christian way of life.
